FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“Bikes from Bunch” Bunch Employees Give Their Time, Talent & Treasure so a Child can Ride

Lakeland, Florida
December 16, 2008

In keeping with its mission, “making the world a better place, one life at a time,” Bunch & Associates, Inc., a national disability management company headquartered in Lakeland, donated 116 bicycles, helmets and Bibles to the Salvation Army Angel Program to be distributed to children and families in the community.

To raise the money, Bunch employees teamed up and spent four months coordinating various company events – lunch, snack, and craft sales for employees to make their contribution. A walk around Lake Hollingsworth, Saturday, November 1, concluded the fundraiser where Bunch employees obtained sponsors and “walked so a child could ride.”

The Lakeland-based company raised $6313 for the “Bikes from Bunch” program. Inspired by this cause and the employees’ overwhelming generosity, the Hazel Crosby Carlton Foundation matched the employees’ donations dollar for dollar enabling Bunch & Associates to purchase not only bicycles, but also helmets and Bibles.

Fran Baker, “Bikes from Bunch” Program Coordinator for Bunch & Associates, commented, “Even with a slow economy, Bunch employees still came through with their generous support and will make 116 kids very happy this Christmas.”

Bunch & Associates coordinates an outreach program during the holidays each year to help local community families in need.
