FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BIKES FROM BUNCH 2009

Lakeland, Florida
December 21, 2009

On Thursday, December 17th, 2009 Bunch & Associates' employees gathered together with The Salvation Army to celebrate the gift of giving. Thanks to the joint efforts of so many Bunch employees and the Hazel Crosby Carlton Foundation, 125 bikes, helmets, bibles and 354 board games will be donated to families in need this Christmas.

Accepting two truckloads full of presents, Captain Stan Colbert from The Salvation Army expressed his sincere gratitude for the time and effort given by Bunch volunteers. He explained almost 4,000 children in Polk County will be receiving Christmas presents this year through The Salvation Army's Angel Tree program. "By meeting the physical needs of people, we are planting seeds together and making a difference in families' lives," said Colbert.

Providing "Soup, Soap and Salvation" to lost souls, The Salvation Army has been called the most effective charity in the United States. Bunch looks forward to sharing hope in the years to come and is honored to partner with such an impactful organization. Together, we are "making the world a better place - one life at a time."
